

Mrs. Basler Is New P-T. A. President

Installation Ceremonies Conducted at Annual Meeting Monday

Mrs. Russell S. Basler was installed as the new president of the Narberth Parent-Teacher Association at the annual meeting held Monday evening.

Mrs. Basler, who lives at 219 Iona av., Narberth, has been active in the Association for the past five years and is a vice president of the Montgomery County Council of Parents and Teachers. She recently represented Mrs. Philip Flach, president of the County Council, at the York and Chester County conferences. She is National Defense chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary and a member of the board of the Narberth Emergency Relief. She has been a Circle Leader at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Narberth, of which she is a member, for the past three years.

Other officers installed on Monday night were Mrs. A. G. Cedarstrom, first vice president; Miss Margaret Gasner, second vice president; Mrs. Robert Toole, treasurer, and Mrs. M. A. Gordy, secretary.

Mrs. W. Grier Briner, president of the Southeastern District P-T. A., and former president of the Narberth Association, conducted the installation ceremonies.

William J. Drennen, principal of the Narberth School, praised the leadership and work of the retiring president, Mrs. G. M. Cohan, and, on behalf of the Association, presented her with a past president's pin.

The program of the evening included demonstrations by the safety patrol and the school patrol, selections by the school orchestra under the direction of Joseph Barone and recitations by the Choral Speaking group under the direction of Mrs. Mabel Hunsicker. The School Chorus sang three numbers under the direction of Miss Fricke and the meeting closed with the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner."

The "Cycling" Judge Rides Into Court

Judge George C. Corson, who has been using a bicycle as a means of transportation for some time, holds the non-stop record for cyclists for the area between Plymouth Township and the Judicial Chambers on the Fifth Floor of the Court House Annex.

Judge Corson arrived at the Court House one morning this week and instead of parking his cycle on the customary place decided to ride right in. Entering from Airy st. through the arway between the two buildings, the judge was not handicapped by steps and rode his cycle directly into the corridor.

As though the entire procedure had been rehearsed, Elevator Operator Thomas Orner was standing in wait and the judge rode directly into the elevator. Taking an "at ease" position but remaining on his trusty cycle, Judge Corson was taken to the Fifth Floor. There he again applied the power and successfully navigated the turns through the corridor, the lobby of his office and hopping off the cycle, took a chair behind his desk—ready for work.

Services to Mark Priest's Anniversary

The Rev. Michael A. Brown, formerly of St. Margaret's Church, Narberth, will celebrate the 25th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood in the Church of the Jesu, Philadelphia, on May 26. The Rev. John J. Brown, F.J., his brother, will preach.

The formal celebration will take place in the Church of St. Amrose, Schuylkillhaven, of which Father Brown is rector. His cousin, the Rt. Rev. Mer. Hugh T. Henry, LL.D., of the Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C., will give the sermon.

Scouts Save Tire and Gas by Holding Home Camporee

Over 400 scouts in 70 patrols from the 25 troops on the Main Line between Bala and Wayne will assemble on the grounds of Haverford College, May 23 for their district Camporee. The Valley Forge Council has broken down its mass Camporee, formerly held at Valley Forge, into district encampments, to help save tires and gasoline.

Frederick B. Pettengill, executive for the Main Line District, will be director of the Main Line Camporee, and will be assisted by Russell Callow, district chairman; District Commissioner L. Fielding Howe, and Howard Corsi, activities chairman for the Main Line.

After cooking their dinner on open fires on May 23, from 7 to 8 p. m., the scouts will witness a demonstration of emergency service directed by Walter Pfaffner, scout master of Bala-Cynwyd Troop 3. At nightfall, a camp fire open to the public will be held, and at 9:30 p. m. taps will sound and the scouts will retire to the tents.

Reveille on Sunday will be at 5:30 a. m. with Church services, both Protestant and Catholic, at 8:30. Awards will be given and the group officially dismissed at 9 a. m.

L. Rertrun Curtis, neighborhood commissioner for Ardmore, will serve as chief judge for the camporee, and Wesley Matthews, Haverford, will be chief clerk. The engineering layout for the camporee is being supervised by Walter Rosengarten, Lower Merion High way Engineer, and Ralph Unkefer, neighborhood commissioner for the Wayne-Rosemont area.

The commissary will be in charge of William White, scoutmaster of Bryn Mawr Troop 3, and Jack Keneally, scoutmaster of the Gladwyne troop. The service projects—parking, policing, sanitation, and first aid—will be carried out by the explorer patrols of the Main Line troops under the direction of George Roberts, field commissioner for communications, and Windsor Belfield, leader of the explorer patrols of the Merion Liberty Troop. Morris Baker, Main Line camping chairman, has charge of arrangements for the two church services.

MRS. FERALIO ACQUITTED OF CHARGES SHE TOOK $17,000 FROM NASH REALTY

Trial Was One of Longest in History of Montgomery Court CRIES WHEN VERDICT IS BROUGHT IN

After one of Montgomery County's longest trials, a jury of ten women and two men on Saturday acquitted Mrs. Rose Alexander Feralio, 30, Ardmore, of charges of larceny by employe and fraudulent conversion.

On 28 counts in two indictments Mrs. Feralio was charged with taking $17,000 from the Nash Realty Company, Wynnewood. She had been employed at the Nash company since 1931, when she graduated from Lower Merion High School, until the Fall of 1941.

The trial started May 5 and went to the jury last Friday. Judge William F. Dannehower presided. The jury brought in its verdict Saturday morning. Everyone in the courtroom was tense. Mrs. Feralio be-

Announcer for the program will be Mr. Richard Lehman. Mr. Philip Cappalanga is in charge of properties, and Miss Margaret Gassner and Miss Agnes Taylor of costumes.

The Narberth Parent Teacher Association will hold a fair in connection with the Field Day, selling refreshments and pony rides.

In case of rain, the fete will be postponed to May 25 at the same hour.

Narberth Battles Gladwyne And Ardmore this Weekend

Manoa A.A., Gladwyne and Narberth, perennial first division teams, looked as formidable as ever as the Main Line Baseball League launched its 36th season last weekend.

All three turned in convincing victories, but it isn't likely that their triple deadlock for first place will exist after this week's games.

Narberth has the toughest assignment of the trio, being slated to face Gladwyne on the latter's diamond on Saturday and due to oppose Ardmore at Narberth on Sunday. Gladwyne also will be home on Sunday, Overbrook being the visitors.

Manoa, defending champion, has an excellent chance of getting a commanding position, as it will entertain Overbrook on Saturday and Brookline on Sunday. Overbrook lost both of its games last week, while Brookline broke even. Brookline plays at Ardmore on Saturday.

Manoa, prevented from meeting Narberth on Saturday on account of a heavy rainfall shortly before game time, started the defense of its title by eking out a 3-1 decision over Ardmore on the latter's field on Sunday. It was the best played game of the weekend.

Millard Robinson, former West Chester State Teachers star who now coaches at Prospect Park High School, made an impressive debut as a Manoa pitcher, holding Ardmore to five scattered hits and blanking them after the first inning.

Jim Rorer, another newcomer, also turned in a well pitched game for Ardmore but Manoa was able to bunch its seven hits for single runs in the second, fourth and eighth innings. Harry Morris and Allie Gwynn led Manoa with two Pooch Serri, former West Pyle's star, won his way into the hearts of Narberth fans in his very first game at the borough, contributing three hits, one a double, to Narberth's 15-hit total which crushed Overbrook, 8-1, on Sunday. Buddy Simons, back in Narberth togs after a year's absence, held Overbrook to five hits and didn't allow hits each. DeMagistris, second baseman, punched out a like number for Ardmore.

The veteran Buddy Walker marked the start of his 11th season at Narberth by smacking out two hits and playing errorless ball at first base. Joey Burns, Harry Fox and Harold Tyson also had two hits each.

Bill O'Donnell, 1941 pitching champion, got off to a brilliant start on Sunday, shutting out Brookline with five hits as Gladwyne scored an effortless 11-0 victory at Gladwyne. O'Donnell gave up only one base on balls and struck out eight. George Mace, new shortstop, and Frank Arnone, third baseman, each collected two hits to lead a nine hit assault on Azzell and Martin, Brookline pitchers.

Brookline's poor showing at Gladwyne was a reversal of form from Saturday when Manager Eddie Hare's proteges looked surprisingly impressive in sinking Overbrook, 13-1. Steuber, who replaced McCallum on the mound after the first inning, gave up only one hit and fanned 11 to gain the decision. The veteran Azzell, former Haverford High star playing third base, led the Brooks' attack with three hits.

Narberth Civic Group Disbanded Because Of Unsettled Conditions

Because of unsettled conditions and the people's desire to concentrate all their efforts on winning the war, the Narberth Civic Association has disbanded.

Announcement that directors of the Association had decided on such a course made this week by Ralph S. Dunne, president of the organization.

Dunne said that, when the government was in full swing about a year ago, approximately 1000 persons had indicated their interest in the civic program outlined. Out of these 1000 Dunne said that 168 had acted in a concrete way to carry out the program.

Part of the contributions received, Dunne explained, had been used for the purchase of stationery supplies, printing and other expenses of promotion. He suggested that if any resident desired to have his dues returned he should stop in at Dunne's office, Haverford and Narberth Aves.

Honor Man

JOHN JOSEPH BRENNAN

Narberth Navy recruit and former minor league baseball player, has been chosen honor man of his company at the U. S. Naval Training Station here.

Son of John J. Brennan, Sr., of 113 Conway av., Narberth, the recruit enlisted several weeks ago as an apprentice seaman. Through a series of aptitude tests given the 130 men of his company, he has been selected to attend one of the Navy's service schools upon graduation from training May 21.

Brennan, who is now 27, played baseball at Lower Merion High School, Ardmore, from where he was graduated in 1933. The following summer, Brennan was given a tryout with the Chicago White Sox by Manager Jimmy Dykes, but wasn't quite able to make the big time.

Summer of 1937 found him at first base for South Boston, Va., in the B-state league. He remained there for the 1938 season and then returned to Narberth to work for the Harvey Roofing Company there.

M. L. Democrats in Close Contest

Bala Candidate Only Receives 62 Ballots

Three of the Democratic candidates for the gubernatorial nomination had a neck-and-neck contest in Lower Merion Township and Narberth Borough last Tuesday.

At the final showdown, Ralph H. Smith with 287 votes was the winner by a small margin in the combined vote of the two Main Line municipalities. F. Clair Ross was second with 279 and Luther Harr was third with 271 votes.

In both Lower Merion and Narberth Democrats brought out 28 percent of their vote compared to only a 19 percent showing made by the Democrats in adjoining Haverford Township.

James J. Regan, another candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket and a resident of Bala, failed to make any kind of a showing. His total in Narberth and Lower Merion was 62 votes. The low governor candidate on the Democratic ticket was Clarence P. Bowers who only received three votes in the Township and Borough.

For Lieutenant Governor, Elmer Kilroy ran ahead of Ramsey G. Black, 439 to 357, in the two municipalities. In the fight over the Secretary of Internal Affairs nomination Warren Hess topped Leo A. Achtermann, 416 to 371.

Democratic candidates for congressman, State senator and State representative, had no opposition.

Three Main Liners Reported As Missing

Three Main Liners are among those recently reported as "missing" by the U.S. Navy:

Ensign Coleman Sellers, 4th, son of Coleman Sellers, 3rd, 115 Edgewood rd., Ardmore.

Lt. Harlan Good Kirkpatrick, husband of Mrs. Harlan G. Kirkpatrick, 120 Linwood av., Ardmore.

Lt. Robert Van Rensselaer Bassett, Jr., husband of Mrs. Robert V. Bassett, Jr., Wynnewood Apartments, Wynnewood.

G.O.P. Gives Davis 144-Vote Lead One District Goes For Gen. Martin

Bell and Livengood Are Out in Front in Borough

BRING OUT 37 PERCENT OF VOTE

Senator James J. Davis won in Narberth Borough despite his defeat for the Republican nomination for governor in the State.

His margin of victory over General Edward Martin was 144 votes although he lost No. 2 voting district by five votes.

Narberth Republicans, however, did a better job than Lower Merion by two percent in getting out the vote. They brought out 37 percent of a total registered vote of 2862 as compared to 35 percent in Lower Merion.

Among the Democratic gubernatorial candidates Luther Harr topped the five contestants and was six votes ahead of the runner-up, Ralph H. Smith.

John C. Bell, Jr., State Secretary of Banking and a resident of near-by Wynnewood, ran ahead of William J. Hamilton, Jr., who was on the Davis ticket for the lieutenant governor nomination. The vote was 540 for Bell and 497 for Hamilton.

Likewise, William S. Livengood, Jr., who was a candidate for reelection as Secretary of Internal Revenue, ran ahead of William F. Smith, who, also, was in the Davis lineup. Livengood received 878 to 135 votes cast for Smith.

Although unopposed, Lambert Cadwalader, candidate for assemblyman in the First Legislative District of Montgomery County, received the highest vote among the Republican candidates. Cadwalader received 992 votes, running ahead of State Senator Franklin Spencer Edmonds and Congressman J. William Ditter, two more unopposed candidates.

In Narberth Borough, the Democrats brought out 28 percent of their vote, compared to 28 percent in Lower Merion and 19 percent in Haverford Township.

Former Automobile Dealer is Suicide In Cynwyd Garage

David Leves, 30, former partner in the Leves Saburn Ford Agency, Montgomery av., Bala-Cynwyd died Tuesday morning.

Leves was found by Dr. Francis Smyth, Cynwyd physician, in a garage at Kent rd. and Bala av., which is rented by Alexander Leves, father of the dead man.

A preliminary verdict of suicide by carbon monoxide poisoning was returned by Montgomery County Coroner Winslow J. Rushong. Leves was found lying beneath a car in the garage, his head near the exhaust pipe. According to Lower Merion police, a letter from Leves' mother prompted her to send Dr. Smyth to look for him in the garage. Police refused to reveal the contents of the note.

Leves had been living with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Leves, at 104 Llanfair rd., Bala-Cynwyd.

Red Cross To Help With Comfort Kits

The Main Line Red Cross has been asked to help in the preparation of 10,000 comfort kits for the Country's armed forces.

These kits will include soap box and soap, playing cards, cigarettes or smoking tobacco, shoe polishing cloth, pencil with metal cap, paper and envelopes, chewing gum, tan shoe laces, double edge razor blades, pocket size book and sewing kit.

Announce Speakers for Testimonial Dinner to Father Brown

The Honorable Charles E. Waters, Prothonotary of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, will be one of the speakers at the testimonial dinner to be given the Rev. Michael A. Brown at the Warwick Hotel, Philadelphia, next Tuesday evening.

The occasion will celebrate the Silver Anniversary of Father Brown's ordination to the priesthood and a large attendance of Narberth residents is expected.

In addition to Mr. Waters, who is a college classmate of Father Brown, the program will include other well known clerical and lay speakers.

The committee in charge of the affair reports that a substantial sum has been raised for presentation to Father Brown as a gift for his anniversary, the amount being considerably in excess of the amount at first discussed, so generous has been the response of the priest's local friends.

Father Brown was assistant rector of St. Margaret's, Narberth, for more than five years and was recently appointed rector of St. Ambrose in Schuylkill Haven. His work in Narberth is described as having been of a unique order and in urging support of the celebration in his honor, Mrs. J. Harvey Gordan, of Merion, stated that "Father Brown's departure is a real loss to the entire community, and he was without doubt a vital force in the promulgation of intelligent goodness."

Tickets for the dinner may be secured from Henry A. Smith on the north side of Narberth, and from William Boxman on the south side.

A CREED OF VICTORY FOR AMERICAN UNITY

The following creed was prepared by the Advisory Committee of the State Council of Defense. The Rev. E. W. Stanford, president of Villanova College, is a member of the committee.

"We are a nation at war in a world of war. They said it could not happen here, but it did. The debate is over. We face the fact, and the fact is a life and death struggle to save America.

"Defense is not enough. We must wrest the initiative away from the enemy. There must be a general offense—moral and economic as well as physical. This positive effort requires dynamic, sacrificial unity—all faiths, all workers, all races, and all colors must be all for one objective. Freedom and democracy, social security, and every liberty of body and soul are in the balance, but we cannot fail unless we fail ourselves.

"As civilians, let this be our purpose: to keep the home front safe and intact; to give unstinting material support to our armies and navies; to pledge to them and our high command unceasing loyalty and inspiration; and, to give the President of the United States, the Governor of our Commonwealth, and all other responsible officers of the government that united support of word and deed which will enable them to devote their efforts completely to the unprecedented responsibilities which are theirs.

"These high principles we will keep alive in our souls by constant practice and thus by example commend them to our fellow citizens. We will hate evil but not the person. We will conquer fear with faith. We will meet rumor with reason. In reverent worship of Almighty God, Father of us all, we will discover infinite resources with which to win this war, not only to save ourselves, but to serve mankind."

Plan Observances
Of Memorial Day

Thomas D. Vandiver
Post Lists Three
Special Events

The Thomas D. Vandiver Post No. 335, American Legion, will attend in a body special memorial services at the Bala-Cynwyd Methodist Church this Sunday at 11 a.m. The sermon will be preached by the pastor, the Rev. Franklin Duncombe.

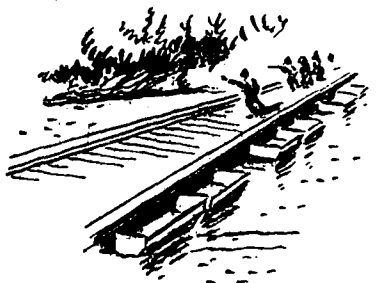

Following the services, members have been invited to meet at the home of Thomas O'Neill, 321 Pembroke rd., Bala-Cynwyd. This Saturday, a volunteer group of Post members will leave at 2 p.m. to place flags on the graves of 190 deceased veterans at Westminster Cemetery.

The official observance of Memorial Day will take place May 30 when brief services will be held at 11 a.m. at the monument on State rd. at Bala av., Bala-Cynwyd. Commander Grey and the Rev. Franklin Duncombe will speak and local Boy Scout troops will take part in the exercises. Afterwards, flowers will be placed on the graves of deceased members of the Post.

Immediately following these ceremonies, open house will be held at the Post Home, Conshohocken State rd., Bala-Cynwyd.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Our army spells and pronounces it pontoon, not "pontoon", as you do. Pontoon bridges cost all the way from $15,000 to $700,000. The smaller bridge using individual metal pontoons is pictured here. The largest pontoon bridge is 1,080 feet long and is made of rubber instead of aluminum.

One small bridge has a weight capacity of 25 tons, using about 2,000 individual metal pontoons. The smallest is used only to take troops over smaller streams. But whether our army uses the smaller or largest pontoon, our engineers need plenty of them. If you and every American invests at least 10 percent of income in War Bonds every pay day we can supply our fighting forces with these essentials to a victorious war.

Yes, Dumbo can fly. This astounding elephant is the principal character of Walt Disney's new, full-length technicolor cartoon, "Dumbo," which can be enjoyed by children from four to 104 at the Egyptian Theatre, May 28 and 29, with an added matinee on May 30.

READING & WRITING
BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

ONE day Nazi troops guarding the Skoda munition works in Czechoslovakia found a drawing of a gigantic tortoise on the walls. The tortoise may not have meant anything particular to the Nazis, but for the Czech workers it meant "slow down." In fact, in all the Nazi-occupied countries the tortoise has become one of the symbols of rebellion. Curt Reiss reports in his fascinating book, "Underground Europe."

Even under the watchful eyes of the Gestapo, a workman in Prague may drop a bolt and have to spend several minutes looking for it under his bench. In another factory, say in Poland, a screwdriver breaks, thus entailing a slight delay. In Belgium, a wrong label is stuck on a box of nails. A French factory girl in Alsace cutting a sheet of tin makes a mistake, spoiling perhaps ten per cent.

Such trifling incidents multiplied a thousand and a hundred thousand fold are doing considerable to throw the German production plans off schedule, says the author of "Underground Europe."

One of the neatest tricks in sabotage is mentioned in F. C. Weiskopf's "Dawn Breaks," a novel about the underground movement in Central Europe. The workers when they are drinking their beer at lunch next to their machines, simply blow some of the suds down the white-hot gun barrels. It leaves no trace, but the barrel is never the same again. The steel cools unevenly, and unevenly cooled steel cannot withstand the stresses set up by the expanding gases at every firing.

Eighty years ago, a French peasant girl, Bernadette Soubirous, saw a vision of the Madonna in a cavern at Lourdes. Since then, thousands of people have made pilgrimages to the grotto, and many have claimed they were cured of their ailments by the miraculous waters of the spring there. Franz Werfel, internationally famous novelist, was in Lourdes at the time France fell, and was so moved by the story of Bernadette that he resolved if ever he escaped to freedom and lived to write again, he would write a novel about her. He finally made his way to America by way of Lisbon and set to work on the book. His forthcoming novel, "The Song of Bernadette," is the result, and the Book-of-the-Month Club has selected it as the Club's June book.

What do celebrities eat? Frank Case, suave proprietor of New York's Hotel Algonquin, whose dining room for many years has been a famous meeting place for literary and theatrical headliners, says he's often asked this question. His answers may be found in a new kind of cookbook, "Feeding the Lions." Evidently celebrities like the same kind of food we ordinary mortals eat. Orson Welles, for instance, goes for boiled beef with horseradish sauce. Gary Cooper and Moss Hart both cast their vote for corned beef hash, while movie star Walter Huston prefers plain roast beef.

CALLING THE TURN

by L. M. FORD

The first major schoolboy track meet at night wasn't what you would call a howling success. The District One, PIAA championships were held under the arc lights at Roosevelt Field, Norristown, last Friday with the express purpose of attracting more fans but the crowd wasn't even as large as many that turned out for this meet in the off months.

However, officials were not too discouraged. They believed two factors kept the crowd down. One was gasoline and tire rationing. Another was the fact that neither Norristown nor Lower Merion has a strong team this year. Usually Norristown fans go for track in a big way, but they have lost interest this year due to their school's poor season. It seems Norristown fans are only interested when their boys have a chance to beat out L. M. for a title.

At any rate, the Suburban Championships, which are held annually in conjunction with the Norristown Interscholastics, will be staged at night as planned next Friday, May 29. As in the district meet, the qualifying events will get underway at 4 p. m., with the finals listed for 8 p. m.

It's our belief that this will be the last meet held under the lights for the duration of the War. When the world is at peace again, we believe track meets at night will become very popular.

HOLLAND SEEKS STATE TITLE

Cheltenham, enjoying its greatest season on the cinders, won the District One title by scoring 54 points. Upper Darby finished second, with 39½; West Chester had 28½, and Chester trailed 26. Lower Merion had the satisfaction of losing out Norristown for fifth place, 20½ to 20. Lansdale trailed 7; Linsdowne, 5½; Havertown, 5½; Abington, 5; Pottstown, 5; and Phoenixville, 2.

Only Main Liners to qualify for the state championships at State College this week-end were Walt Holland and Dick Seiber, Lower Merion, and George Johnson, Havertown High. Holland won the district broad jump title with a leap of 21 feet. Johnson and Seiber tied for second place in the pole vault. Edmund C. Wicht, secretary of the PIAA, declared a week ago the state meet would be held even if the boys had to hitch hike to get there. Wicht believes athletics for schoolboys are more important than ever in war-time, and that they should be maintained at all cost.

His determination to carry on the PIAA program is encouraging and stimulating. Let's hope athletic directors throughout the suburbs follow his example.

THEY'D BE SURPRISED!

INSIDE STUFF—Bill Anderson, Lower Merion High's great basketball coach, was turned down for a commission in the Navy because of poor eyesight. The Admirals might change their mind if they saw Andy sinking 'em in practice. Warren Lentz, one of the Junior High coaches, was more fortunate. His commission came through a week ago, and he's at Annapolis at this moment getting his preliminary training. Ollie Robinson, another L.M. coach, expects to enter the Navy as a mathematics instructor.

George Rowbotham, the young Llanerch golfer, put on about 30 pounds during his first year at the U. of Alabama. He marked his return to local golf competition by deadlocking Howard Everett, Manufacturers' ace, for the low gross prize in the Penn A. C. tournament at North Hills on Tuesday. Rowbotham, a former Havertown High star, turned in a card of 36-36-72. George Gaskill, Brookline sharpshooter of Main Line Basketball League fame, has been transferred from Camp Lee, Va., to McCord Field, near Tacoma, Wash.

The miserable crowd of 3366 that turned out for the Phils-Pirates twilight game for the benefit of the Army-Navy relief funds was little less than a disgrace. Perhaps the Phils don't deserve a decent following, but for such a worthy cause at least 10,000 fans should have been able to put up with the Loebmen for a few hours. Let's hope we Main Liners make a bet showing when the Main Line League holds its all-star game for Army-Navy relief later in the season.

Manoa has come up with a classy keystone combination, one that promises to become one of the greatest in Main Line League history. It's Dick Baker at shortstop and Ike Wooley at second base. Baker is fresh from Amsterdam of the Canadian-American League and previously played in the league with Brookline. Wooley formerly played with Port Richmond in the Philadelphia League. He's a coach at Northeast High School, and now is living in Havertown Township. You'll be hearing a lot more about these two before the season's over.

Library News

Cooperation is a word frequently heard in public library circles today, when it is necessary to make the most of all resources. The Narberth Community Library has always had such a happy state of mutual cooperation existing between itself and the local organizations, that the fact is no longer news.

Junior Women's Community Club—Book Club: "Oral Book Reviewing," by Stella Havertown (ordered).

These are in addition to Defense and reference books purchased from the School Board appropriation, and the purchases from the Jeanette-Campbell Chevrolet fund, which are as follows:

Arrangements for the party are in charge of the Mulieres' president, Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller, and Mrs. John Wetzel, co-chairman. They will be assisted by the following board members: Mesdames George Gilpin Jr., Charles Halst, Sterling Chain, Harry Hollar, A. L. Altman, R. S. Basler, James McCaffrey, H. S. Kaler, A. G. Other features of the program will be a talk by Miss Kathleen Rowan, directress of nurses at Bryn Mawr Hospital, on training nurses for war work and a talk on "Music for the Layman," by Miss Margaret Squiers.

Miss Ada Dettlerline is chairman of the meeting.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS ITEMS

Plans are under way for the erection of a large assembly plant for cargo airplanes on 580 acres of land in Lower Merion Township, Montgomery County, and in Philadelphia County.

Ninety acres of the tract for the proposed plant, which will employ from 3,000 to 3,500 workers, are in Lower Merion Township and the rest in Philadelphia. The Lower Merion tract, in the Eastern part of the township, is bounded by Red Lion, Pine and Tomlinson rds. and Montgomery-Philadelphia County Line.

High school students over 14 years of age are being registered by the United States Employment Service as part of its drive to supply necessary labor to agriculture employers this year, it was announced today by Leydard Heckscher, Manager of the Norristown office of the United States Employment Service.

Harrisburg rationing authorities are appealing to the County boards to supply them with the total number of gas cards issued as well as the breakdown for A, B and X cards. Local boards which now have possession of the gasoline application forms, however, were unable to get down to the task of counting them because of the many other things demanding their attention.

Sermon-Topics

"Soul and Body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 24. The Golden Text is: "Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God" (Psalms 42:11).

Mrs. Feralio

gan to cry. "I have faith and confidence in your decision," Judge Dannehower told the jurors, "I don't wonder you had difficulty in reaching your verdict."

Testifies for Wife

Taking the stand to testify in defense of his wife, late Thursday afternoon, Alexander Feralio, now stationed at Mitchell Field, L. I., said Benjamin Groff, a partner in the Nash Realty Company, Wynnewood, told him he "knew Rose hadn't taken a penny" of the $17,000 discrepancy allegedly shown on the books of the Lower Merion realty concern.

Defense Counsel Victor J. Roberts produced an accountant, E. J. Root, Philadelphia, who at the close of lengthy testimony stated there was no shortage nor discrepancy but that the missing amount "represented unpaid rentals that the Nash Realty Company had recorded as paid, and remitted to their bank and trust company clients for the purpose of maintaining their good will and business."

Instructed by Stallard

Mrs. Feralio previously admitted making certain changes in the company's records, but she testified, did so under the instruction of L. Bruce Stallard, a member of the partnership at that time. During her testimony she said the rent paid by one tenant in many instances would be credited to another whose rent had not been paid.

Feralio testified his wife earned $26 a week and he earned $25 a week as a barber. He said he never knew her to have more than her $26 weekly wages. At that time, the husband said, they lived in a five-room apartment over a grocery store at Paoli.

Feralio said he went to Wynnewood one night to meet his wife after work and that when she came from the office she was crying. He questioned her, he said, and he quoted her as having told him "That place is driving me crazy, I'm going to quit."

Wanted to Quit

Feralio said he went into the office and met Stallard and after talking with him a short time that Stallard suggested they go to Stallard's apartment at Narberth. Stallard asked Mrs. Feralio what was troubling her, the husband said and when she didn't reply immediately the husband said: "Go ahead and tell him you're going to quit." When Stallard asked her the reason, the husband testified, she said "I'm fed up with keeping books, particularly the system you make me follow." Feralio said Stallard told them "everything will be all right."

Under cross examination Assistant District Attorney David E. Groshens, asked Feralio: "Does your wife share your interest in racing?" to which Feralio answered "We never bet very much."

Under continued questioning Feralio said his wife accompanied him to a race track only once in the nine years he has known her. The racing he was interested in, however, Feralio said, was automobile racing and said he had visited the Indianapolis track for three years.
